Your Excellency,

I have the honour to refer to the Convention between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of Israel providing for the Reciprocal Recognition and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil Matters, signed at London on 28 October 1970<sup>(1)</sup>. On instructions from Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs, I have to inform Your Excellency that the Government of the United Kingdom wish to extend the operation of the said Convention to Jersey, the Bailiwick of Guernsey and the Isle of Man under paragraph (2) of Article 10. Paragraph (3) of that Article provides that, before this may be done, an agreement has to be concluded between the Contracting Parties as to the courts of the territories concerned which shall be courts to whose judgments the Convention shall apply and to which application for the registration of any judgment shall be made.

I therefore have the honour to propose that, for the purposes of the Convention:

- (a) the following courts shall be courts to whose judgments the Convention shall apply:
  - (i) in relation to Jersey, the Royal Court and the Court of Appeal of Jersey;
  - (ii) in relation to the Bailiwick of Guernsey, the Court of Appeal of Guernsey and the Royal Court sitting as an Ordinary Court or as a Full Court; and
  - (iii) in relation to the Isle of Man, Her Majesty's High Court of Justice of the Isle of Man; and
- (b) the following courts shall be courts to which application for the registration of any judgment shall be made:
  - (i) in relation to Jersey, the Royal Court;
  - (ii) in relation to the Bailiwick of Guernsey, the Royal Court; and
  - (iii) in relation to the Isle of Man, Her Majesty's High Court of Justice of the Isle of Man.

(1) Treaty Series No. 62 (1971), Cmnd. 4757.

If the foregoing proposal is acceptable to the Government of Israel, I have the honour further to propose that the present Note together with Your Excellency's reply to that effect shall constitute the agreement provided for in Article 10 (3) of the Convention in so far as Jersey, the Bailiwick of Guernsey and the Isle of Man are concerned.

I avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.
